process does that mean you have to like talk to the children yourself? Are you actually talking children up right now to try to engage me with them? That's really disturbing and upsetting and weird. Which makes you a bigger criminal by far then I would ever be but it's your kind of crime I understand 10:09 AM
Also, you said something the other day about Stephen yeah I haven't talked to Steven in months and months and months and months and the only reason that it kind of got on my head is I hadn't told anyone I talked to Steven which means you were sitting outside my window listening to my conversation. That on top of the guy on whisper which definitely was you hit knocked all the regular tells.. where to instructed me to keep my window open and play with myself... I have a question how much time do you spend outside my window wishing you were inside my room with me? 10:10 AM
How much time do you spend lovingly jerking your own penis thinking of me between your legs? I mean you've gone through my Reddit history you found Reddit accounts that don't have my name associated you got my entire Facebook history. You've contacted my family which means you did a background check. This is a lot of work. You must really love me 10:11 AM
I've never met anyone who loves me this much but also who is talking to children actively to try to get them to meet with adults which makes you a child predator again. Please remember your case was dismissed for you you was not rendered innocent which means at any point knew it evidence can be brought to the courts awareness that you in fact committed the crime and you could be sentenced for life for that. And you know what's fun about that? You did course that child but also a really good form of evidence is the written testimony of yourself. Like in our Facebook conversation 10:12 AM

Based on your behavior lately my guess is that you're trying to do to me what you did to bo and thatnlure me to some location where a child is waiting you've been talking in my name the whole time because you have the telegram account and the email address probably a couple other accounts with my name on it right? 10:08 AM
And you want to be able to see me as a squirm because I'm going to I'm going to say oh it wasn't me it wasn't me and hear all these accounts with my name on it right? That's your goal? You and Carly's goal I imagine 10:09 AM
You regardless of who it is you've already took credit for putting go behind bars which makes me think you're insane but in that process does that mean you have to like talk to the children yourself? Are you actually talking children up right now to try to engage me with them? That's really disturbing and upsetting and weird.
