cases because you root canals are beautiful hygiene of the mouth
Sorry because of poor hygiene of the mouth Okay Michael, that's fine I shouldn't have said anything, we're just going to do what I had mentioned formally tomorrow. You know that you encouraged me to visit you on the promise of money and drugs In exchange for sex. And you know that you then gave me money and then 2 hours later ordered someone to attack me with a baseball bat while you robbed me. I have texts, geographic data, my police report at the time and more than enough medical bills to show that when my teeth were evulsed that the nerves were severed and died on top of my cracked jaw and I did have 5 root canals. It was a mistake thinking you'd see the value In resolving this simply and rightfully. I will have my bill cost reimbursed and I will have the pain and suffering from the entire ordeal compensated.
I know Florida law. I have retained an excellent personal injury attorney, the liability absolutely falls under the owner of the home. We will be filing root canals for someone bashing your teeth in that's not what they do they extract the tooth in a root canal fixes a broken tooth internally down to the nerve it creates a canal to the root... If you had a bunch of broken teeth they would extract the teeth and then probably give you dentures or implants they wouldn't give you what eight root canald where is where is your medical records

This is so stupid my head is spinning you're so stupid but please give me your lawyer's name we'll have a conversation you should assume that because I'm a white boy from the suburbs I have at least one lawyer in my family lucky for you I have four bring it on Wait .. how many do I have it's more than one definitely more than two I think I think we know I think we have to go to second or third cousins to get to four .. yeah sure go ahead then is Ben right you've ben right
Did you just block me did you just block me
